Chanellé Vlok is a talented creative who expresses her talents on and off sets as a milliner and stylist for various campaigns and portfolios. Having completed a Bachelor of Arts in Fashion Design through LISOF, Vlok has gained a great deal of knowledge and expertise from the organisations and exemplary leaders in the Creative Industry.

Each and every one has contributed to her phenomenal work ethic, discipline, execution, and conviction for perfect execution. She has been aligned with brands such as SA Fashion Week where she fulfilled various project management roles. She then pursued a career in styling as a personal shopper with Kim Berell & Jane Filmer; after which she joined Lampost Productions as a stylist and Production co-ordinator for 3 years before she moved on as a freelancer where she has had the opportunity to work with well-known brands ranging from corporates to fashion designers.

She believes in continuous commitment towards the ongoing production and execution of authentic design, along with energy, drive, and enthusiasm.
